New Business:

Review of Public Comments submitted regarding Proposed Casino Licensing Rules

Doralee Chandler from the AG's Office reported that the ARC had received nine public comments regarding the proposal changes to the Casino Gaming Rules. Ms. Chandler reviewed the public comments and recommended that the ARC go forward with the proposed rule changes for the casino licensing process. The proposed rule changes will have to be reviewed and approved by a subcommittee of state legislators, which could be set for review in April of 2024. The proposed rule changes become effective 10 days after legislative approval. Commissioner Steve Anthony moved that the Commission approve and adopt the rule changes recommended by the AG's office, and the motion was seconded by Commissioner Steve Landers. The motion passed unanimously.
